

BRISTOL ORNITHOLOGY

12

BRISTOL ORNITHOLOGY

THE JOURNAL OF THE BRISTOL ORNITHOLOGICAL CLUB

No.12 | DECEMBER 1979

CONTENTS

- |        |                                                                                                  |
|--------|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| 38     | Preface                                                                                          |
| 39     | A review of 1978 Brian Rabbitts                                                           |
| 49     | Birds on Brean Down, 1967 to 1978 Ken Hall, Robin Prytherch and Brian Rabbitts            |
| 63     | Wintering warblers in Avon R.L. Bland                                                     |
| NOTES  |                                                                                                  |
| 67     | A Black-and-white Warbler on the Isles of Scilly Bernard King and Nigel and Laurel Tucker |
| 68     | A summer population of non-breeding gulls at Saltford Bernard King                        |
| 69     | Killdeer at Chew Valley Lake Keith Vinicombe                                              |
| 70     | Black Kite feeding and preening whilst in flight Bernard King                             |
| 70     | Blackbirds feeding young on estuarine worms Bernard King                                  |
| 71     | A hybrid Black Duck x Mallard on the Isles of Scilly Bernard King                         |
| 71     | Blackcap eating snowberries Brian Rabbitts                                                |
| 72     | Blackcap singing in winter Bernard King                                                   |
| REPORT |                                                                                                  |
| 72     | Club Activities, 1978                                                                     |